East Point Officials Celebrate Georgia Cities Week

EAST POINT, GA- East Point Officials announced the city will be celebrating “Georgia Cities Week” April 24-30. The city will hold a variety of events throughout the week, including “What In The Point” Trivia, a government center tour with East Point schools, “Movies In The Meadows” Movie Night and a citywide clean-up day. The theme of this year’s Georgia Cities Week is “Shaping the Future.”

“We’re very proud of our city and the services we provide that make East Point attractive to residents and visitors,” said Mayor Deana Holiday Ingraham. “Cities provide critical services and infrastructure that help businesses grow and set the stage for events where families and individuals can gather and connect as a community.”

Events planned for the week are:

- April 25- 28: “What In The Point” Trivia via East Point Social Media Platforms
- April 29: East Point Government Center Tour + Meet and Greet with East Point Schools
- April 29: Movies In The Meadows Movie Night @ 8:30 p.m. at East Point City Hall
- April 30: Citywide Clean-Up Day @ East Point City Hall from 10am-12pm

Cities across Georgia will be celebrating Georgia Cities Week, sponsored by the Georgia Municipal Association (GMA), to showcase and celebrate cities and the many services they provide. Based in Atlanta, GMA is a voluntary, non-profit organization that provides legislative advocacy, educational, employee benefit and consulting services to its 538 member cities.
