East Point to Host Inaugural Standing Peachtree Native American Festival & Powwow

Two-day Festival to showcase Native American culture through music, dance, food & more!

EAST POINT, GA-The City of East Point is encouraging families across the Metro region to experience the energy and culture of one of the largest Native American gatherings to take place in South Fulton County. The East Point Public Art Division, in partnership with Georgia Indigenous Diversity Consulting, LLC, are proud to announce the inaugural Standing Peachtree Native American Festival & Powwow in Downtown East Point. This two-day festival will take place on August 20-21, 2022, from 9:00 a.m. -6:00 p.m. at East Point City Hall, located at 2757 East Point Street, East Point, GA 30344.

“The City of East Point celebrates and firmly believes that our diversity is our strength,” said Mayor Deana Holiday Ingraham. “We look forward to welcoming Native Americans from across the U.S. and other visitors to our City to experience this fun, educational and community building event.”

Attendees will experience and understand the central role of dance in Native American culture, music, traditional native dwellings, food, arts & crafts and more! Admission is free. Lawn chairs are permitted. Drugs, firearms and alcohol are prohibited. For more information, visit www.eastpointcity.org
