

Downtown East Point

FEATURED BUSINESS

Eat My Biscuits

Eat My Biscuits opened its doors in Downtown East Point in 2023. The owner, Vanetta D. Roy, chose to locate here because of the small town feel, proximity to the airport and the diversity in the community. She loves the history, as well as, the future direction of East Point.

The restaurant offers breakfast, brunch and lunch, with access to a full service bar. Their patrons come from a variety of backgrounds and many choose to celebrate special occasions (birthdays, anniversaries, graduations, first dates, etc.) at the restaurant. Guests can enjoy some of their most popular dishes, including the hot honey chicken biscuit, the seafood biscuit, famous Hennessy wings or their blueberry lemon ricotta waffles, paired with a mimosa or handcrafted cocktail.

This location was a former auto parts store that sat vacant for many years. During the renovations, they retained many of the architectural features, including the original ceilings, flooring and exposed brick.

They offer a happy hour from 4-8pm and a game night will be coming soon, along with an outdoor patio that is expected to open Summer 2024!
