

Redmond Jones
City Manager

Redmond Jones is a visionary, multi-disciplined manager with superior analytical skills and award-winning leadership accomplishments. He has developed strong skill sets in human resources, project delivery, policy development, labor relations, program implementation, and aligning organizational initiatives with institutional goals. An excellent communicator, he possesses proven experience in negotiating various development and redevelopment agreements.

With more than 25 years of experience in both public and private sectors, Mr. Jones's career spans from founding and managing his consulting firm to dedicating himself to over two decades of public service. His local government experience encompasses roles at all levels of responsibility in both large and small communities.

Mr. Jones holds a Master's Degree in Public Administration from the University of Kansas and a Bachelor's Degree in Urban Studies from Cleveland State University. He has also earned certificates from Michigan State University in Industrial Relations and has completed senior executive training at both the University of Virginia's Darden School of Business and Harvard University's Kennedy School of Government.

On March 3, 2025 East Point City Council approved Mr. Jones' contract for the position of City Manager and a start date of March 5, 2025. Before this, he served as the chief executive in the City of West Branch, Iowa, and Groveland, Florida—one of the fastest-growing communities in the United States. His extensive career in government and government relations includes experiences with the cities of Las Vegas, NV; Lee's Summit, MO; Fort Worth, TX; Temple, TX; Davenport, IA; Groveland, FL; West Branch, IA; and Iowa City, IA. Additionally, he has provided professional consulting and advisory services to clients such as the Iowa Department of Transportation, Scott Community College, and the Iowa Governor's Office under the Branstad Administration.

As Managing Partner of Dellmar Consulting LLP, Mr. Jones directed staff performance on various projects, including nonprofit organizational development, green energy project development, business plan and investment consulting, government support services, and community sustainability initiatives. In his role as Deputy City Manager with the City of Iowa City, Mr. Jones provided experienced, collaborative, and visionary leadership in the administration of day-to-day operations. Working closely with the City Council, city employees, and Iowa City residents, he often employed an "outside-the-box" approach, leading to noteworthy quality-of-life enhancements in the communities he has served.
